DISCOVERING THE CAPTURING DESTINATIONS

Explore and experience the culture-rich city of Phnom Penh with some of the most famous landmarks and attractions.

THE ROYAL PALACE

Indulge the marvel of Phnom Penh - The Royal Palace. Until 1866 Phnom Penh was designated as the capital of Cambodia, following the King's relocation to the city and the building of an opulent palace close to the river.

The Royal Palace - a magnificent example of Cambodian royal architecture that occupies over 174,870 sqm of the city center, has since become a symbol of the capital and a must-see for tourists with its beautiful Khmer roofs, elaborate gilding, and lush gardens. While not all of the Palace is accessible to the public, some areas are available for the visit, including the Throne Hall with its 59-meter-tall tower modeled after Angkor's Bayon style, the outdoor Chan Chaya Pavilion (Dancing Pavilion), which occasionally hosts classical Khmer dance performances, and the Silver Pagoda featuring a life-size gold Maitreya Buddha statue weighing 90kg and dressed in royal regalia and set with 9,584 diamonds, the largest of which weighing 25 carats, and a floor made of 5,329 sterling silvers. The destination is just 11 minutes by car from Noden Hotel & Apartment.

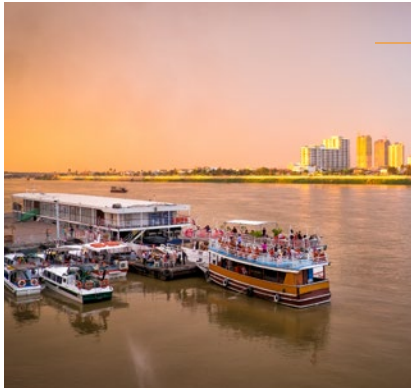

WAT PHNOM

One of the most easily overlooked landmarks by tourists is Wat Phnom. Considered to be an iconic symbol of Phnom Penh, Wat Phnom monastery is famous behind the story of a rich elder woman who happened to stumble across a floating log where she found five Buddha statues inside. The Buddha statues were then placed for blessing in the man-made hill whose name was suggested after the elder woman "Wat Phnom Daun Penh" which means "Mountain Monastery by Grandma Penh".

Later on, People only used the short name Wat Phnom. Wat Phnom is encompassed by trees and plants that are inviting for various species like monkeys, chipmunks, and bird species like toucans, etc. You can visit Wat Phnom 13 minutes by car from Noden Hotel & Apartment.

INDEPENDENCE MONUMENT

A symbol of peace and independence from the colony is one of the most important historical achievements in Cambodia. To celebrate and remember this remarkable moment, Independence Monument was established in 1958 to memorialize Cambodia's independence from France in 1953. The majestic structure is the form of a lotus-shaped stupa inspired by Boteay Srei's architectural style. It is opened publicly for tourists, locals, and state visits for foreign country leaders. It takes 7 minutes by car and 35 minutes from Noden Hotel & Apartment to Independence Monument.

PHNOM PENH RIVERSIDE

There is no doubt that Phnom Penh Riverside is a place that tourists hardly miss because of the leisure vibe and serenity it brings. Whether you wish for a long stroll by day or jogging exercise by morning, the riverside is a good place to begin with. The stunning riverfront view of Tonle Sap captures the life-nurturing beauty of Mother Nature that blesses this city and its people. To elevate your experience even further, you can book the evening boat tour to see all the astonishing city views and river bank. If you are keen on photography, it might be the best spot on the list. It takes 13 minutes to reach the riverside by car and 58 minutes by walking from Noden. For boat tour booking information, you can inquire further at our Noden Hotel & Apartment reception counter.

PHNOM PENH NATIONAL MUSEUM

If you are keen on the art gallery, culture, and history of Cambodia, Phnom Penh National Museum is the best place to start with. As a home to the world's finest collection of Khmer sculptures, it's a place where you can experience a graceful terracotta structure of traditional design from 1917 to 1920 with an inviting courtyard garden.

The museum houses displays of pottery and bronzes dating back to pre-Angkor periods as well as the current artistry works of Khmer culture. It takes only 11 minutes by car from Noden Hotel & Apartment to reach the destination.

TUOL SLENG GENOCIDE MUSEUM

Despite the friendly nature and beauty of the country, Cambodia was once stained by the dark past, which cannot be forgotten and it is remembered forever. Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum known as S-21 is one of those historical places, that was once used as the genocidal prison by the Khmer Rouge regime to interrogate and torture political and innocent prisoners whom they intentionally convicted.

You can explore more deeply inside the museum gallery with all the displayed information about the Khmer Rouge regime and their atrocity on Cambodian people. It preserves evidence of a tragic period in Cambodian history to encourage visitors to be messengers of peace. To visit Tuol Sleng, you can travel by car for 8 minutes from Noden Hotel & Apartment.

BASSAC LANE

Are you looking for a night out and not knowing where to go? Bassac Lane - the vibrant avenue for nightlife, might be your best start. The place is soaked with nightclubs, bars, and restaurants, you can find almost any kind of food and drink from Asian delights, Western to Far East.

It is known as one of the most Phnom Penh's best-loved after-dark hotspots for beer, cocktails, or a bite to eat. It is the best haven for bar-hoppers or party-goers who wish to extend their curiosity further into the night. It takes only 6 minutes by car from Noden Hotel & Apartment to Bassac Lane.

FACTORY PHNOM PENH

Factory Phnom Penh, a former garment factory has been transformed into a vibrant hub for innovation and creativity. Spanning over 3.4 hectares, this complex now houses Cambodia's largest coworking space, as well as offices for emerging businesses and start-ups.

Additionally, studios for artists and production spaces for makers and craftspeople can be found within the complex. The diverse range of activities available at Factory Phnom Penh aims to inspire and excite individuals, making it a unique and exciting destination in the city. Alongside these offerings, there are also food, beverage, and recreation options available for visitors to enjoy. It only takes about 4 minutes by car from Noden Hotel & Apartment to Factory Phnom Penh.

PHNOM PENH STREET FOODS

Indulge in a vibrant culinary experience at Prince Times Square food court, where the flavors of Phnom Penh street foods come alive. Savor the aromatic fragrance of grilled meats, the sizzle of stir-fried noodles, and the spicy tang of freshly made soups.

From classic Cambodian dishes like amok (fish curry) and bok choy (stir-fried vegetables) to international favorites like Thai pad Thai and Vietnamese pho, there's something for every palate. The bustling atmosphere and friendly vendors create a lively and authentic dining experience that's not to be missed. Come hungry and ready to explore the diverse flavors of Phnom Penh's street food scene at Prince Times Square food court. It takes only 5 minutes by car from Noden Hotel & Apartment to the Prince Time Square food court.
